

Support the Rossini Opera Festival

The Rossini Opera Festival is one of the most important music festivals on the European scene. It is the only international event entirely dedicated to Gioachino Rossini, who designated Pesaro – the town of his birth – sole heir to his considerable fortune when he died in 1868.

In existence since 1980, the Rossini Opera Festival revives, studies and stages the composer's musical legacy. Besides Rossini's most famous scores, the Festival has brought back into circulation – in urtext versions established as such by the Rossini Foundation – a large number of forgotten Rossini operas, restoring them to grateful opera lovers.

Amici e Sostenitori del ROF

The non-profit association was established in 1997 to welcome the support of opera lovers who, through their gifts, give a precious contribution to making the Rossini Opera Festival possible. Thousands of opera lovers from all over the world – audiences like no others in their spirit, motivation and participation – are united and drawn to Pesaro by a common passion for Rossini.
